

Among NEIGHBORS

Hand-drawn animation brings the past to life as an eyewitness to murder and a survivor of genocide reveal their nation's darkest secret. Combining magical realism with traditional documentary techniques, "Among Neighbors" examines the mystery of a small, rural town where people of two different faiths lived side by side for centuries—until the killing began.

Produced and directed by award-winning filmmaker
Yoav Potash ("Crime After Crime," Sundance Film Festival)

    @AmongNeighbors

AmongNeighbors.com

presented in partnership with

Rialto
cinemas®

Chochmat
HaLev

BERKELEY
hillel
JEWISH STUDENT CENTER

THURS, FEB. 26 at 6:00PM

*Film Screening and Q&A with filmmaker Yoav Potash
moderated by Zvika Krieger of Chochmat Halev*

RIALTO CINEMAS EL CERRITO
10070 San Pablo Ave | tickets at rialtocinemas.com

“REMARKABLE...
AN ABSORBING TRUE CRIME MOVIE”

San Francisco Chronicle

Love the film? Rate it on:

Scan the QR code
to rate the film

